Food for Thought Creates Great Teams

JamBerry Ltd has developed a new programme of Team Building Workshops using the Culinary Arts Studio facilities at University of Brighton.

Berry Winter, Director, JamBerry Ltd said, "We wanted to find a suitable environment where teams could have fun and bond, whilst at the same time have the opportunity to learn about: planning, delegation, decision-making, time-management, and communication skills to help teams function more effectively when they get back to the workplace. We believe that the purpose built and ultra modern facilities, provided by the Culinary Arts Studio at the University of Brighton, will give us the environment that we need to achieve this in a practical, productive and fun way."

Gilly Nicol, Business Manager, Culinary Arts Studio said, "This is an exciting new development for us, enabling us to offer facilitated team building and Getting to grips with Health and Safety...

Health and Safety regulations can seem like a lot of paperwork.

Fact

212 fatalities occur at work each year

Myth

There are more rules than ever before.

False. Before the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, there were twice the number of regulations. Legislation made it simpler and easier to understand.

Fact

30,000,000 working days lost annually through accidents and ill health
